Dear Mr. Jones,

Thank you for your letter of the 15th inst. regarding the matter of the damage to your property at 42 Elm Street.

I have made a thorough investigation into the matter and have interviewed all the witnesses concerned. The evidence is conclusive that the damage was caused by a fallen tree during the storm on the night of the 12th inst.

I am therefore writing to inform you that your claim will be passed for payment and you should receive a cheque for the amount within the next 14 days.

Yours faithfully,

John Smith
Insurance Assessor

Sir,

With reference to correspondence ending with your No. 849 of 14th August 1907, re the appointment of Dharmadarsis to the Anna Chatram at Chennapatna I have the honor to state that, the Closepet Sub Division officer states in his No. 44 of 29th August 1907, that there is no necessity for the appointment of Dharmadarsis, on the ground that their appointment may result in petty disputes among the persons employed in the management of the Institution

2. I agree with the Divisional Officer's opinion, and forward the entire file connected with the case for reference and return when done with.

3. The Closepet Divisional Officer has been requested to issue orders to the Amildar, to entrust the work of issuing receiving tickets to the Theristedar instead of to the Head Gumasta.

I have the honour to be.

Subject No. 528, of the D. R. A. Meeting of 1906, re the appointment of Dharmadarsis for the Govt Annachatrams at Chennapatna.

Letter No. 28, dated 6th September 1907, from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore Dt:-

Order thereon:-

Mr Ramasanjeevanja of the Chennapatna Municipality represented in the D. R. A. Meeting of 1906, that if the Govt Chattrams at Chennapatna be managed through Dharmadarsis, it would be more useful to the public people.

2. The Amildar of Chennapatna reports that the present system by which the local Musalmans authorities are managing the Institution is not brought with any inconvenience or irregularity, and that therefore the same may be allowed to continue with the alteration that the Taluk Sheristadar may be authorised to issue tickets of admission to the chattrem, instead of the Head Gumastah, but that the appointment of Dharmadarsis to the Institution may result in petty disputes among the persons entrusted with the supervision of its affairs hence of. The Amildar further reports that he explained his views to the Representative member Mr. Ramasanjeevaiya, and he who fully agreed with him in thinking that no change in the Institution in the manner suggested by him was called for.

3. The Divisional Officer and the Deputy Commissioner are also of opinion that there is no need for the introduction of Dharmadarsis. The ~~Deputy Commissioner~~ latter officer further reports that the ~~Collector~~ Divisional Officer has been requested by him to issue instructions to the Amildar to entrust the work of issuing the tickets to the Taluk Sheristadar instead of to the Head Gumasta.

4. Under the above circumstances, the Govt agree with the D/Commr in thinking that it is unnecessary ~~by the Deputy Commissioner~~ to appoint Dharmadarsis for the management of the Chatram at Chennapatna ~~is recorded and the second point approved~~. The Representative Member will be informed accordingly.
